Wild food

2.34 What do you do when you are hungry? Go to the kitchen cupboard? Buy a burger? Or do you do what Fergus Drennan does – look for food in the fields? 5

- 1 Fergus doesn't like buying his food in supermarkets or shops. He finds his food in the countryside. All his food is local and it's free. A lot of the food in supermarkets travels thousands of miles to get there, from Africa, South America or China. Free food is all around us – but a lot of people don't know it is there. 10
- 2 Fergus Drennan is a writer, teacher and TV presenter. He lives and works in the countryside in the south-east of England. A lot of people attend his courses. He teaches them how to find wild food like mushrooms and nuts, and then makes delicious dishes like soups and salads. 15
- 3 Fergus also teaches them something else that is very important. He knows that you can't eat everything from the countryside. Some mushrooms and plants can kill you. Fergus shows the people on his courses which food isn't safe to eat. 20
- 4 Fergus's recipes are on his website. They are very unusual – and they are also healthy, fresh and free! Why not try them? 25
